

STOP!

I did not authorize my scarf pattern to be posted to other Web sites for “previewing” and it has been moved to prevent further theft. I designed the pattern and offered it for MY customers who come to MY Web site and purchase MY yarns and other items. Just because it is “free” does not mean it isn't copyrighted, or that the copyright does not apply, or that OTHER people can freely make it available for anyone to share at their leisure.

If you want my patterns, you are welcome to visit <http://www.knitvity.com/patterns.html>
